Professional Certified Coach

Yumiko Shito is a Professional Certified Coach through the International Coach Federation and Vice President of the ICF Japan Chapter. She is also certified through CRR Global as an Organization & Relationship Systems Coaching Certified Coach. Yumiko holds a Master of Science Degree in Management and Organizational Behavior from the Javeen Jindal School of Management at the University of Texas at Dallas and a BS Degree in Business Management from New York State University. She is fluent in both English and Japanese.

Yumiko is a Coach and Thinking Partner for C-Suite executives of global organizations. Her mission is to enable senior executives to accelerate the growth and establish the sustainability of their organizations. She supports clients to clarify the visions/strategies and accomplish them with the expansion/transformation of their thinking and behavioral traits.

In her mid-20's Yumiko moved to New York City, one of the most competitive global business arenas in the world. She obtained firsthand experience in global business practice, leadership and business management from working with a distinguished client list of C-suite senior executives. After 12 years, her company Insignia/ESG (Currently CB Richard Ellis), the largest East Coast commercial real estate firm in the United States, transferred her to Tokyo to establish its Japan operations where she served as the Representative Director for four years.

During her tenure as a C-suite executive, Yumiko consistently reaffirmed the importance and responsibility of CEOs and C-suite senior executives to shape vision and create future goals and for global business leaders to maximize their individual potential. Her last corporate position was with Morgan Stanley, as COO of the Corporate Service Department of Japan, and Information Security Officer of Asia Pacific and Japan.

Yumiko's coaching focuses on global leadership coaching for senior leaders and Organizational Systems Coaching for organizations and teams. Yumiko also provides Organizational Development Consulting.
